Northside Citizens Meet to Take Steps Towards Securing More Improvements.

TO HAVE BETTER SCHEDULE

This is What the Association i Striving for-Another Meeting to be Held.

To show that they are in the work with a vim and a resolute purpose to improve their community, several hun-areds of citizens of Chestnut Hill, Mosareds or cutzens of Chestnut Hill, Mos-by's Plateau, and of Highland Park, as-sembled in the big hall last night on the occasion of the annual meeting of the Northside Citzens' Association of Chestnut Hill and Highland Park.

There were there men, woman, and children, in sufficient force and numbers children, in sufficient force and numbers to show that they were in dead carnest in the matters of a much-needed school on the Hill, and of a better schedule for the electric cars than is now in practice 6: the Northside line.

Mr. E. M. McClure took the chair. The following new members were elected: Rev. George H. Wiley, Mr. W. W. Foster, Mr. P. Lane, Mr. Small and Dr. L. C. Smith. It was stated that there were lishty-six members on the roll-book, of whom six had been dropped during the past, year, and one had died, leaving only seventy-nine that the speaker characterized as "healthy" members of the association.

president of the association, and who has held the office for the past seven or eight years, at the request of the chairman addressed the assembly on the history of the association and what it has accomplished. "Had I been President of the United States," said Mr. Coalter, "I would not have appreciated it any more than 2 to the position of president of this association."

Various Reports Made.

The reports from the retiring commit-tees were then read, and were in every case most encouraging in their outlook for the further improvement of the Hill. Reports were read as follows: New Members, by S. W. Marshall,

Police and Sanitation, by W. G. Quarles Ensertainment, by F. F. Rennie, chair

Public Interests, by H. M. Starke, munity. He advocated the association's having a ladieg auxiliary attached to it. The surgestion met with hearty applause. The first subject for discussion, Schools the need of a new building, was presented by Mr. C. F. Cross, and was discussed by Messrs. C. W. Wingfield, J. T. Goodwin, C. D. Wilder, H. M. Starke, Mr. Coalter, Mr. Rennie and others.

In the discussion of the second subject, the need of better street car service, Mr. McClure stated that the Virginia Passenger and Power Company had never replied to a communication of his asking, for an interview on the question of a better schedule. He said the Hill wanted for an interview on the question of a better schedule. He said the Hill wanted a ten-minute schedule, and nothing less a ten-minute schedule, and nothing less would suit them.

Owing to the lateness of the hour, Mr. W. H. Dunn-made a motion to postpone the discussion of the question till the next regular meeting. The meeting adjourned at 10:45 o'clock.

The newly elected officers of the association are as follows: E. M. McClure, president; S. W. Marshall, vice-president; John A. Devine, secretary; W. S. Huxter, treasurer.

Remarkable Story From Russia Says Each Father First Killed Entire Family and Then Slew Himself.

S. PETERSBURG, June 11.—An entire nomadic tribe, the Tshuktobees, numbering about 2,000, has just perished by its own act as the last avenue of escape from ramine.

The tribe inhabited one of the bleakest parts of Yakutak, and obtained a precarious subsistence by rearing reindeer. Early in 1905 a deadly disease appeared among it in a general assembly.

Much Discussion.

Much Discussion.

There was a good deal of discussion as to the proper method of proceedure.

Mesers, Pollock and Turpin wanted to send all the papers to the full committee and let the bidders be heard. They were opposed to recommending any one, but the motion of Mr. Spence to recommend Mr. Evans prevailed by the following vote:

Ayes-Mesers. Stein, Wood, Spence and Pollard—4.

Mr. Pollock was opposed to any recom mendation, and Messrs. Miner and Washer desired to recommend Hunt & Co. The matter has made slow progress so far, being yet in the hands of the joint committees.

Elegant Spread Laid at Jefferson, and Members Indulge Evening of Pleasure.

The Life Underwriters' Association of Virginia held its annual banquot, and meeting at the Jefferson Holel last night. The members sat down to a magnificent spread shortly after 8 o'clock, and until quite late the different courses were enjoyed and joility indulged in. When the coffee finally came around the report of the committees were called for. The Committee on Re-Taking in Solicitors, Mr. F. W. Adams, chairman, had its report continued, as was also that of the Committee on Medical Fees, Mr. G. T. Tabb, chairman. The Committee on Investing and Rebating, Mr. F. W. Adams, chairman, had its report accepted.

The next thing in order was the reading of the report of the president, Mr. N. D. Sills. This paper showed that the association had had the most successful year in its history, and that its work has been wide and thorough. The work accomplished, as given in the report, was most gratifying to the members, and it was moved that it be made part of the infinites.

Officers Chosen.

The election of officers followed. President N. D. Sills was manimously relected, in spite of his disinclination at first to receive the honor again. The other officers elected were Messrs. Frank W. Adams. first vice-president; George Bahlke, second vcie-president; C. G. Walter, secretary and treasurer; executive committee, W. S. Drewry, Garnett Tabb (re-elected), and A. P. Wilmer (re-elected).

The association voted to invite the na-tional association to Richmond for its 1907

RICHMONDER ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF BIGAMY

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LEXINGTON, KY., June Li.—Acting on information from a Roanoke, Va., detective agency, local detectives arrested.

J. W. Ashborn, of Richmond, Va., here to-day on a charge of bigamy. Ashborn is alleged to have a wife in Galax, Va., whom he deserted several weeks ago, going to Bluff City, Tena., where he paid court to his first cousin, Mary Davis, marrying her and coming here, where he had been plying his trade as larber. Ashborn says he has been divorced from his first wife:

He is forty years of age and weights about 240 pounds. His last wife is boarding here, and says she thought Ashborn ing here, and says she thought Ashborn had been divorced from his first wife. She will be sent home.

The Richmond police know nothing of Ashborn. The man's name does not ap-pear in the city directory, PHILADELPHIA. June II.—It is reported here to-night that President A. J. Cassatt, of the Pennsylvania Rallroad, will be invited to appear before the Interstate Commerce Commission to make any statement he may desire in connection with the investigation made by the commission into the company's distribution of coal cars. Similar invitations, it is said, were sent to President Murray, of the Bultimore and Ohio; President Murray, of the Bultimore and Ohio; President Johnsson, of the Norfolk and Western; President Bewens, of the Chesaptzke and Chio, and President Newman, of the New York Central.

The purpose of the commission is to afford the rallroads every opportunity to clear themselves and to define their positions. After this has been done, the Interstate Commerce Commission will about June 30th adjourn its hearing until September. PHILADELPHIA, June II.-It is re-
